

Have the Feeling of Being Left Behind?

The URI Foundation Boat Donation Program has just the cure!

For almost 30 years the URI Foundation has provided boat owners with the opportunity to donate their vessels in support of scholarship and research at the University of Rhode Island.

At the same time, the Foundation has maintained an active and growing used boat sale program. The net proceeds from boat sales which are not used by the various University-based marine programs will support research and scholarship at URI.

Our current inventory of used sailboats, powerboats, and equipment exceeds $2.2 million. There is something for everyone at the Narragansett Bay Storage Facility. Prior to making an appointment to view these boats, please visit our web site at www.urifoundation.org for a detailed listing, complete with boat photo and inventory. To make your appointment, contact the URI Foundation Office at 401.874.5273.
